EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This document is deliverable “D7.3 – Initial Data Management Plan (DMP)” of the European Union project “Retrofitting towards climate neutrality” (herein referred to as “Green Marine”), with grant agreement No. 101096522.

The Green Marine Initial Data Management Plan (DMP) reiterates the specific section in the deliverable “D7.2 – Project Management Handbook and draft Data Management Plan”. Note that all partners have confirmed that there are no changes as reported in the draft DMP included in the deliverable “D7.2 Project Handbook including draft Data Management Plan”.

This deliverable mainly targets the consortium partners as this initial data management plan defines the purpose and scope of the DMP, the FAIR data principles (findability, accessibility, interoperability and reuse), the research outputs, allocation of resources, data security and ethics. In addition, all partners have provided information about their organisation’s dataset generation on a per task basis and data handling procedures. It serves as a reference document for all Green Marine team members including potentially any individuals joining in the project at a later stage and follows up D7.2 – Project Management Handbook and draft Data Management Plan”.

This initial data management plan is understood to be a living document and is updated if need arises in order to improve the internal Green Marine processes and management.
